

THE DAILY APPEAL

FRIDAY MORNING, JANUARY 20, 1859.

FOR SALE.—A NEW CARROUSE, for six hundred and fifty dollars—cost six thousand. Apply to Dr. H. J. HOLMES, Jr., No. 175 Main street, or at HOLLAND's stable.

We are again under obligation to The Adams Express Company for late Philadelphia dates.

TENNESSEE BONDS.—State bonds continue to advance in the New York market, and in them are reported active. On Friday last 10,000 pieces, 1859, were sold at $73, and 1,000 at $71.

We are requested by Mr. KIRKMAN to send us his new pamphlet on the principles with which he has school, near Greenpoint. He is still prepared to accommodate all who may desire to avail themselves of the advantages of his institution.

The Phoenix Restaurant is now opened for the reception of guests. The public may be assured that the proprietor will spare no expense in furnishing his bar with the best liquors that can be procured, and always keep such attendants as will insure order and give general satisfaction.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Mr. BROWN BREWER, widow near Hickory-Wayne, in Payne county, was instantly killed, on last Tuesday, by a fall from the wagon, in which he had been driving his wife, a widow with two children, to meet his son, near Greenpoint. He is still prepared to accommodate all who may desire to avail themselves of the advantages of his institution.

The Phoenix Restaurant is now opened for the reception of guests. The public may be assured that the proprietor will spare no expense in furnishing his bar with the best liquors that can be procured, and always keep such attendants as will insure order and give general satisfaction.

ALL who are steering the "Little Giant" Corn and Cob Mill which is furnished by D. McCaus & Co., No. 157 Main street, find a large saving of corn. It is better to save a little more, than to risk all the chances of wind and water damage, crop.

"The Phoenix is the real health."

Improved Little Glass Depot, 157 Main street.

We have the pleasure of a full page-day from Mr. W. G. Clegg, editor of the Pine Bluff Democrat. Mr. Davis visits our city with the view of collecting advertising from such our business men as may desire to make themselves and their business known in our sister State. The Democrat is an excellent advertising medium, and published in a interesting section of country.

WIDTH OF THE RIVER.—On Wednesday the City Civil Engineer, E. W. RUCKER, Esq., took an accurate measure of the distance from the mouth of the Arkansas to the point where it joins the foot of Piney Creek. It proves to be 3,234 feet, or a little more than half a mile, accurately, 610 of which is the width of the creek.

PINE STREET.—There is one street that is almost an exception to the general mud-hole state of most Memphis thoroughfares at the present time—it is Pine street, situated between the foot of Piney Creek and the river, and extending westward for about three blocks. The width is often stated to be a mile, but, of course, is often

POPLAR STREET.—There is one street that is almost an exception to the general mud-hole state of most Memphis thoroughfares at the present time—it is Poplar street, situated between the foot of Piney Creek and the river, and extending westward for about three blocks. The width is often OLIVER LUCAS, Esq.—He is pleased to welcome this gentleman among the members of the press in this city, where he assumes the position of local editor of the Advertiser. Mr. Lucas has filled, with credit, to himself and advantage to the paper with which he has been connected, a similar position in the principal Louisville papers. We are glad to learn that he intends making Memphis his permanent home.

ASSASSINATION.—A number of houses and vehicles are again cautioned, that, to drive on the paved pavers or sidewalks of the streets is an offense against the city ordinances which is punishable by fine. The present state of the streets is enough to cause drivers to take the sidewalks in sheer desperation, but if they are freely allowed to do the sidewalks will soon be engulfed in the general thaws, and the paving stones will be torn up, and the means of transit, while the driver will be in as bad a situation as before. The sidewalks must be repaired.

Two men were arrested and taken before Esq. East, yesterday, for transgressing in this respect.

COURT SQUARE.—We were glad to see Court Square yesterday beginning to do a portion of the beauty which is to make it an ornamental feature of the city. The first gift of public spirit, citizens, are now set out, and their bright lights are a most welcome addition to a spot that has looked dull and dreary since the winter rubbed the forest trees of their foliage. Parties having shrubbery to spare will constitute the public buildings, and the buildings of the law, and other offices, in the vicinity of the square, will be in as good condition as the rest of the city.

MEMPHIS COMPANY.—Drives of horses and vehicles are again cautioned, that, to drive on the paved pavers or sidewalks of the streets is an offense against the city ordinances which is punishable by fine. The present state of the streets is enough to cause drivers to take the sidewalks in sheer desperation, but if they are freely allowed to do the sidewalks will soon be engulfed in the general thaws, and the paving stones will be torn up, and the means of transit, while the driver will be in as bad a situation as before. The sidewalks must be repaired.
